

Alexandria Gazette

FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 27, 1906.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 5:01 a. m. and sets at 6:49 p. m. High water at 10:24 a. m. and 10:54 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight. Saturday partly cloudy; variable winds.

Aid for the Sufferers.

Rev. H. J. Cutler, of St. Mary's Church, this city, has received the following which explains itself:

Richmond, Va., April 20th, 1906.
Rev. Dear Father—The enclosed telegram received by me today explains itself. You will please read this appeal next Sunday at all the masses. Announce a collection to be taken up the following Sunday, and forward, as soon as possible, to the Rev. Chancellor.

A. VAN DE VYVER,
Bishop of Richmond.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Van De Vyver, Richmond, Va.

In the hour of our great distress, I appeal to you, and ask the assistance of your priests and people by means of a collection in the churches of your diocese. The work of fifty years is blotted out. Help us to begin again.

P. W. RICHARD, Archbishop,
San Francisco, Cal.

Train Wrecked.

A south-bound Southern Railway work train was wrecked yesterday afternoon near Chatham, Pittsylvania county, causing the death of one of the crew and injury to two others. The train was en route from the shops at Monroe to move a wrecked engine from the tracks near Greensboro, N. C., and carried a large derrick. The car on which the big machine was placed turned over, caused by the speed of the train. Several others of the work cars were derailed. J. T. Madison, of Charlottesville, who was on the derrick car, was mangled to death. The unfortunate man had been in the employ of the company for forty years. The injured were E. H. Gregory and W. H. Tucker, both of Monroe. The men were well-known in this city. The track was torn up or a considerable distance and traffic was suspended for several hours. The track was cleared at 9 o'clock last night.

Federal Art.

A bill for establishing a national advisory board on federal art, submitted by the National Society of the Fine Arts of which Mr. Glenn Brown, formerly of this city, is secretary, has been introduced in Congress and a plea showing the demand for the necessity of such a board has been issued. The plea states: "To foster and encourage the fine arts more than two hundred societies have been organized in the United States. When it is realized that these societies are composed of the enlightened and intelligent classes, the importance of these associations and the movements which they represent will be appreciated."

Harry Kramer.

Mr. Harry Kramer, the trick bicyclist of this city, has been quite ill at Hot Springs, Ark., and has gone to Colorado in hope of recovering his health. He recently gave an exhibition at Hot Springs, the following account of which appeared in the News of that place: "A wonderful rider by the name of Kramer appeared at the rink last night and created a perfect sensation with his marvelous performance. There have been many good bicycle riders seen in Hot Springs, but Kramer has them all beat a city block. He does every trick known to other riders and then a whole lot more. He pleased the patrons of the rink so well that he was requested to appear again."

Horses Frightened by Train.

Some excitement was caused near Spring Park yesterday afternoon by the screams of some ladies who were in a carriage. An out-bound electric train was approaching when the horses attached to the vehicle became frightened and rearing on their hind legs came near forcing the carriage and occupants down the bank. The motorman, seeing the danger, soon brought the train to a standstill when several gentlemen caught the horses by the bridles and held them until the train moved away.

Increased Receipts.

There has been an increase in the receipts of herring at Fishward during the past twenty-four hours. Nearly 200,000 were received yesterday afternoon and this morning from sailing vessels and steamers. They were selling at from $2.50 to 4 per thousand. Shad are still very scarce and prices keep at the high-water mark. Buck sold at from $25 to 27 a hundred and roe from $50 to $60.

A Cut Off.

The Southern Railway is now making a survey east of Chatham looking to changing the main line from Lynchburg to Danville. The change will shorten the distance more than one mile from Chatham to Danville and avoid many dangerous curves and steep grades. At Galveston, eight miles north of Chatham, work on the proposed change will begin in a short while.

Auction Sale Tomorrow.

Mr. Samuel H. Lunt, auctioneer, will sell for Mr. R. H. Cox, Sergeant, administrator, at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in front of the Osage Manufacturing Company, on the southeast corner of Wolfe and Union streets, the fishing outfit of the late Frank Price. A list of the articles to be sold will be found in an advertisement elsewhere in the Gazette.

Fell from Railing.

A little boy named Olvin Cheshire was seriously injured at the northeast corner of Wilkes and Fairfax streets yesterday evening by falling from the railing of the porch of the unoccupied dwelling at that corner. The boy, who was either sitting on or leaning over the railing, fell headfirst on the bricks.

Charter.

The State Corporation Commission yesterday granted a charter to the Edwards Land and Building Company (Inc.), Alexandria, Scott Nesbit, president; Frank E. Rapp, secretary; B. F. Edwards, treasurer; all of Washington. Capital, $100,000. Objects: A general real estate business.

Personal.

Miss Ansley, who has been visiting Mrs. Phillip Harrison in New York, has returned to her home in this city.

Mr. R. P. W. Garnett has received a letter from his sister, Mrs. L. A. Garnett, stating that she lost everything she owned in San Francisco, but that she is now safe in Oakland.

Miss Virginia Powell Goodwin, daughter of Mrs. James Mather Goodwin, was married yesterday at Christ Church, Georgetown, to Mr. Charles Gregory McRobert. Mr. Raymond Acton, of this city, was best man.

Bishop G. Leon confirmed a class of 18 at the Theological Seminary last night, 16 of whom were High School boys. Tonight he will confirm a class at St. John's Church, West End, and on Sunday morning at St. Paul's Church, this city, and on Sunday night at Christ Church.

Rev. J. J. Bowler, V. G.; Rev. Charles Donohoe, pastor at Martinsburg; Rev. F. Patrick, O. S. B., of Warrenburg; Right Rev. Henry Gabriel, D. D., bishop of Ogdenburg, N. Y., and Right Rev. A. Van De Vyver, D. D., bishop of Richmond, Va., were guests at St. Mary's rectory this week.

Dr. F. J. Brooke, formerly pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, was in this city yesterday.

Back to Virginia.

Mr. Thomas A. Broadus, formerly of this city, where he has many friends, but more recently of Washington, has just purchased through F. M. Graham, real estate agent, a home, Waycroft, in Alexandria county, west of Ballston, immediately upon the W. A. & F. C. electric railway, and on Monday removed thereto. Mr. Broadus is still in the U. S. Pension Bureau in Washington, in which bureau he has held a responsible position for twenty-six years. In a note to this office Mr. Broadus says:

"I have recently bought a home in Alexandria county just west of Ballston. We moved over on Monday, and I feel like a citizen once more. The first thing to do, very naturally, is to subscribe to the Gazette, which will make me feel more at home than anything else after many years residence in Washington."

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]
The following cases were disposed of this morning:

James Ramsauer, colored, arrested by Officers Young and Roberts, charged with assaulting and beating Ida Thomas, was fined $5.
Richard Pines, colored, arrested by Lieutenant Smith charged with stealing a pistol from St. J. Irby, had his case continued.

Eugene Tate, colored, arrested by Officer Henderson charged with assaulting and cutting Chas. Tate, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.
Albert Smith, colored, arrested by Lieutenant Smith charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was fined $5.

Charles Jackson, colored, arrested by Officers Gill and Sherwood charged with assaulting and beating Victoria Lee, was fined $5.

Opera House.

Another large crowd was at the Opera House last night to witness the production of "Camille" by Chauncey L. Southern. This play is well known to most theatre-goers and needs no introduction. Mr. Southern played the part of Armand Duval in a very forcible manner, and gave a clear and excellent interpretation of the very difficult part. Miss Mabelle Vantassel handed the role of Camille in an exceedingly clever manner and won for herself many friends. The other parts were all well taken. Tonight the company will produce "The Power of the Church," a comedy-drama of unusual merit. New specialties will also be introduced. A matinee will be given tomorrow afternoon at 2:30; the play to be "Three Hats," a farce comedy. At the matinee a five dollar gold piece will be given to one holding the lucky number.

Death of Judge Sangster.

Judge James Sangster died at his home near Burke's station, Fairfax county, at 11:30 o'clock this morning. The deceased leaves a widow and five children. Judge Sangster was born near Fairfax Courthouse January 15, 1832, and was consequently in the 73rd year of his age. Previous to the civil war, when his father, the late Edward Sangster, was sheriff of Alexandria, the deceased was his deputy. Shortly after the State had been admitted to the union, in the early seventies, he was Judge of the Alexandria and Fairfax County Courts, a position he held for twelve years. Judge Sangster had many friends and acquaintances in Alexandria, where he was almost as well known as in his native county, all of whom will regret to learn of his death.

Wedding.

Miss Maggie Boethe and Mr. Lee G. Langley were married at the home of the bride at Strasburg, yesterday morning at 6:30 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Hamaker officiating. The bride wore a blue traveling gown and was attended by Miss Emma Boethe and Mr. Charlie Boethe. Little Miss Loraine Evans and Miss Marguerite Hunter acted as flower girls. After the wedding breakfast and congratulations the bridal party left on the 8:30 train for this city, where they will reside. They were recipients of many handsome presents.

Dangerous Pastime.

The crews of freight trains which pass up and down Wilkes street are complaining of the dangerous practice of boys, white and colored, who jump on and off moving trains. In some cases, it is alleged, colored women perform the same foolishly. While cars are being switched on Union street in the neighborhood of the B. & O. depot boys are often seen risking their lives by jumping on and off cars. It is impossible for the train crews to perform their duties and keep youngsters and others out of danger.

Liquor Licenses.

Judge Barley in the Corporation Court today granted two of the applications for liquor licenses which were "held up" yesterday and postponed consideration of two more until tomorrow. Several saloon keepers who took out licenses last year have not made applications so far.

A Badly Burned Girl.

A boy or woman, is quickly out of pain if Bucken's Arnica Salve is applied promptly. G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., says: "I use it in my family for cuts, sores, and all skin injuries, and find it perfect." Quickest cure known. Best healing salve made. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

The time of the court was occupied today in hearing witnesses in the case against W. W. Douglas on a motion to remove him from office as one of the County Supervisors. The case was still in progress when this report closed.

Special Train.

The Southern Railway Company will, beginning about June 9, operate a special train through the valley, daily except Sunday, from Strasburg to Washington. This train will be put on for the accommodation of business men of Alexandria and Washington who want to spend Sunday out of the city, so they can leave after office hours and return by 8:30 o'clock a. m.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There were light showers of rain late yesterday evening. Considerable lightning was seen in the northwestern heavens between eight and nine o'clock last night. The temperature today has been springlike and the weather fair.

The entertainment to have been given at the residence of Mrs. Smith, on North Cotton street, last night for the benefit of the Young People's Union of the Baptist Church, has been postponed on account of a death in the family.

The Shepherds, a beautiful schooner-rigged yacht from Philadelphia, anchored off this city this morning. Several ladies came up on the yacht. Later in the day most of the party came ashore and went to Mount Vernon.

The bridge across Accotink run, or "town branch," at Fairfax, was broken down and so badly damaged by a traction engine one day last week, that a new bridge will have to be built.

It is said that the local freight depot of the Washington Southern Railway will be removed from Cameron and Fayette streets to the new union depot about the 15th of May.

We have received an invitation for the inaugural trip of the steamer St. Johns, which is to run forty miles down the Potomac and return, on Sunday, April 29.

Mrs. Mary F. Sleeman, wife of John B. Sleeman, of the Postoffice Department, died in Washington this morning. She was born in this city in 1843.

Lewis Hawkins, colored, aged 70 years, died at the almshouse last night.

The Board of Police Commissioners will meet again tonight.

Fried Clams 30 cents a dozen. Oysters fried, stewed or raw. Clam Soup 5c. Vegetable Soup. C. H. Zimmerman, Market Space.

Mr. George R. Wilson died last night at his home in Washington. For forty years he was superintendent of the Washington navy yard.
